Original Art Guidelines

All hanging wall art must be your original work; no mass-produced giclees or reproductions of an original. For prints to be considered as originals (framed and hung on the gallery walls) they must be limited edition, hand-pulled, numbered and signed by the artist.

To give yourself the best chance for a successful jurying, choose your pieces as if you were preparing for a solo exhibition. All works submitted should convey a consistent and well developed style. Avoid submitting a non-cohesive body of work or work from different periods of your artistic development.

All pieces are to be clearly labeled to include: artist name, title, medium and retail price.

Gallery artists wishing to exhibit work in a medium for which they have not been juried will be asked to submit such work for jurying.

Jury Panel

The jury panel will review your work within two weeks. You will be contact via e-mail with the jury's decision. Should your work not be accepted, you have the opportunity to resubmit in six months.
